

Workplace 529 Program – Employer overview

Franklin Templeton 529 Education Savings Plan

Offer employees a tax-advantage way to save and pay for higher education

Franklin Templeton 529 can help them prepare for rising tuition costs and give their children an opportunity to pursue their dreams.

Simple, easy and appreciated

Why offer this voluntary benefit:

Holistic benefit options: a great way to differentiate your benefits package to help recruit and retain employees.

Employee-driven: employees complete the enrollment and manage accounts on their own.

No administrative burden: no setup or recordkeeping fees, or oversight requirements. No need for HR involvement or limited enrollment periods.¹

Broad employee appeal: suitable for parents, grandparents and adult learners, with no age limits or income restrictions.

Why employees appreciate it:

Easy to get started: multiple ways to contribute, including recurring contributions and direct deposit from paycheck.

Broad range of uses: use for a variety of education expenses at two- and four-year universities, career and technical schools and certain apprenticeships nationwide.

Flexibility and options: the beneficiary can be changed to a member of the immediate or extended family at any time, and unused savings can be transferred into a Roth IRA for the beneficiary.²

Investment choices: three investment strategies tailored to meet various education savings goals.
